CARTE POSTALE.

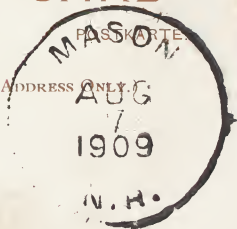

From the Cloof (a picturesque district at the foot of Table Mountain) can be obtained a fine view. In the foreground is Cape Town, half obscured by the luxuriant foliage, and behind are the blue waters of Table Bay stretching out to the Blue Colesburg Mountains 80 miles distant, with Robben Island 12 miles away, nestling in its midst. Cape Colony has been a British possession since 1806.

Had a lovely rain
helped everything but
But the dampness
knocked him out, had a bad night, will look for you when you come
have you had the this' job?
where do you find cards
now? 2 B.M.
